

a. Which one is on top?1 Match the following compound words (from texts 2 and 3) to their definition.

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| standing ovation ● | ● Where people with a handicap can go |
| curtain call ● | ● Where you can buy tickets |
| standing room ● | ● When the spectators stand up to applaud the actors |
| leg room ● | ● When people buy tickets just before the show starts |
| last minute rush ● | ● Where you have enough space to stretch |
| disabled access ● | ● Where the spectators can stand when all the seats are occupied |
| ticket booth ● | ● When the actors come to the front of the stage after a show to be applauded |

2 Compare the West End and Broadway. Complete the following grid with the comparatives that you can find in the text (not all boxes can be completed).

	The West End	Broadway
Size of theatres
Actors	more big movie and TV stars
Ticket prices
Age of theatre district	older
Decorations of theatres
Facilities
Location

- 3 Using information from the grid above, use the comparative to make sentences with the following adjectives.

small few relaxed expensive recent ordinary bad wide

e.g. There are fewer movie and TV stars in Broadway than in the West End.
Broadway is more recent than the West End.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

- 4 From your findings, deduce which one is on top : Broadway or the West End?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....